The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 17, to Saturday November 21, 1761.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 7th Day of November, 1761,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, that a great Number of Journeymen, in the Cabinet and Chair Branches, have lately entered into a Combination to lessen the Hours of their daily Work, and to raise the Price of their Piece Work; and that on Monday the 14th of September last, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, the Journeymen, in several of the Shops of the principal Cabinet and Chair-makers in London and Westminster, came in Bodies to their respective Masters, and demanded the Lessening their daily Hours of Work, and Raising the Prices of their Piece Work; which being refused, they immediately quitted their Services. That the said Masters have, by all Means, endeavoured to prevail on the said Journeymen to return to their Business, and offered them Protection and Encouragement according to their Merit; notwithstanding which, they hold frequent Meetings at Publick Houses, and raise Subscriptions among themselves for supporting such Journeymen as are unemployed, and for carrying their Demands into Execution; which, if complied with, would increase the Prices of Work, and greatly affect not only the Foreign Trade of those Commodities, but also those that are provided for Home Consumption.—And whereas it hath been further represented, That the said Journeymen Cabinet and Chair-makers, so in Combination, deter and hinder others from working as usual, and threaten them with Death or Maiming, if they do not come into, and assist them in their Demands—In order to put a Stop to such unlawful Combinations and riotous Proceedings—It is hereby Ordered in Council, That all and every His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, and all other Civil Magistrates whatsoever, do cause the Laws against such Offenders to be immediately put into Execution, and use their utmost Endeavours to put an immediate Stop to such unlawful Meetings and Combinations; and that, in order to prevent the same, they do particularly enquire into the Behaviour of all Masters of Publick Houses, where the said Journeymen assemble and resort, in order to carry on their illegal Practices, to the End that such Prosecutions may be carried on against them, as may be thought just and reasonable, to prevent this great Evil: And their Lordships do hereby Command the respective Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, that they do, from Time to Time, transmit an exact Account of what they shall do, pursuant to this their Lordships Order, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

W. Blair.

St. James's, November 21.

The following Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, embrace, with the greateſt Pleaſure, this firſt Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty, in a Body, on your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Memory will ever be honoured by us; and on your auſpicious Marriage to a Proteſtant Princeſs of illuſtrious Extraction, moſt amiable Accomſhpliſhments, and excellent Diſpoſitions.

We return your Majeſty our ſincereſt Thanks for your early Promiſe, that you will make it the Buſineſs of your Life, to preſerve and ſtrengthen the Conſtitution in Church and State. To the Whole of that Conſtitution we are zealouſly attached. And our Attachment comprehends the ſteadieſt Fidelity to your Majeſty, the deepeſt Reverence for the Laws of our Country, the tendereſt Regard to the Rights of private Judgment, and the trueſt Value for rational Liberty, in Religious as well as in Civil Concerns.

Permit us alſo to expreſs our moſt cordial Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in publiſhing immediately a Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for preventing and puniſhing Profaneneſs and Immorality. Your Majeſty's conſtant good Example proves how ſeriouſly you have at Heart theſe ineſtimable Purpoſes; and this declared Reſolution of diſcountenancing Wickedneſs in all Perſons of whatſoever Degree or Quality, and diſtinguiſhing the Pious and Virtuous by Marks of your Royal Favour, muſt, as Occaſions of acting upon it occur to your Majeſty, contribute powerfully to produce that general Reformation in your Dominions, which is ſo greatly wanted.

For we humbly repreſent to your Majeſty, as we are bound, that the Mildneſs of our Laws, and the Lenity uſed in the Execution of them, are Bleſſings which Licentiouſneſs hath grievouſly abuſed; that Intemperance, Debauchery, and irreligious Diſcourſe, abound; that the Worſhip of God is lamentably neglected; that the Lord's Day is openly diſregarded and profaned; and that Books, Pamphlets, and Papers, are vended with Impunity, the plain Deſign of which, is to make the Goſpel of Chriſt an Object of Scorn, and promote ſuch impious Notions, and ſlagitious Behaviour, as tend to the Deſtruction of human Society.

Theſe are Enormities, for which Conſcience cannot be pleaded; and which the Wiſdom of all States hath judged it neceſſary to reſtrain. We firmly truſt, that your Majeſty's Authority will be exerted, as far as it is requiſite, againſt them; and likewiſe againſt the unwearied Endeavours, which the Emiſſaries of the Church of Rome, preſuming on the Indulgence exerciſed, with a truly Chriſtian Spirit, towards the Members of their Communion, moſt ungratefully employ, to infuſe into the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, Falſehoods, inconſiſtent with the fundamental Principles of Britiſh Government.

We ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, each of us in our ſeveral Stations, attentively perform whatever is incumbent on us in relation to theſe Matters; that we will faithfully oppoſe every dangerous Error, diligently teach every needful Truth, and ſhew ourſelves in all Things Patterns of good Works. We will alſo, whenever your Majeſty ſhall think it a fit Seaſon, be ready, with much Thankfulneſs, and Caution againſt giving Offence, to conſider jointly of ſuch Proviſions, as may conduce to the better Direction of our Brethren of the Clergy, and the greater Edification of the Flocks commited to our Care.

In the mean Time, we heartily bleſs God for the many ſingular Advantages that we enjoy under your Majeſty's fatherly Protection: And we earneſtly pray Him to give ſuch further Succeſs to your Arms, as may ſecure a beneficial and laſting Peace; to grant you a long and proſperous Reign over a People ſtriving to be worthy of it; and to crown you with all domeſtick, as well as publick Happineſs in this World, and with eternal Felicity in the next.

They were received very graciouſly, and all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this very dutiful and loyal Addreſs: The affectionate Expreſſions which it contains, of your Regard towards the Queen, and your Zeal for the Support and Honour of My Government, are highly acceptable to Me. You may rely upon My conſtant Reſolution to maintain the Excellent Conſtitution of the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed; to diſcourage Vice and Immorality; and to enforce, by every Method in My Power, all due Obedience to the Precepts of our moſt Holy Religion.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Queensferry in Scotland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Francis Holburne, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Queensferry in Scotland.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of Queensferry, do humbly beg Leave to join, with the reſt of your faithful People, in entreating your gracious Acceptance of our warmeſt Congratulations upon the joyful Occaſion of your Marriage to a Princeſs, whoſe conſpicuous Virtues, even more than Her high Birth, renders Her worthy of being the Partner of your Throne.

That all the Felicity, intended by the Divine Inſtitution, may be the Effect of this Union, is, and ever ſhall be, our moſt earneſt Wiſh and Prayer.

Given under our Seal, at our Town Hall, this 28th of October, in the Year 1761; and ſigned in our Preſence, and at our Deſire, by

Ja. Dalgleiſh, Preſes.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace, Bailiff's Peers, Burgeſſes, and others the Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Wenlock in the County of Salop, humbly beg your Majeſty's Permiſſion to join in the general Congratulations of theſe Kingdoms, on the Concluſion of your Majeſty's Marriage with a Princeſs every Way worthy of ſo eminent a Station.

This early Accompliſhment of the Wiſhes of your People, will ever be conſidered as a ſtriking Inſtance of your conſtant Attention to their Proſperity, which has ſo viſibly appeared during even the very ſhort Period in which your Majeſty has ſo happily reigned over us. And as the Example of thoſe, who are placed in Stations of Eminence, muſt greatly influence the Minds of inferior Perſons, we flatter ourſelves with a Proſpect moſt pleaſing to every Well-Wiſher to his Country, ſince it is eaſy to foreſee, that the riſing Generation will become better, from the Opportunity now offered to them, of imitating in your Majeſty, ſo amiable a Pattern of every publick as well as private Virtue.

Given under the Common Seal of our ſaid Corporation, the twenty-ſeventh Day of October, in the ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, of the Town of Bedford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord St. John, Recorder of Bedford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, of the Town of Bedford, in Common-Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, of the Town and Corporation of Bedford, humbly beg Leave to preſent your Majeſty with our Addreſs of Congratulation, on your moſt Auſpicious Nuptials.

The amazing Succeſs of your Arms Abroad; the Harmony and good Agreement of your Subjects at Home; able Miniſters to adviſe, and valiant Forces to execute, have concurred in proclaiming your Majeſty through the World, a Glorious King.

The Social Endearments of domeſtick Life were only wanting to make your Majeſty's Happineſs complete. This we with Joy ſee accompliſhed, in your Choice of a moſt amiable Princeſs of the Proteſtant Religion; a Princeſs endowed with Qualifications which add Luſtre to Dignity; and bleſſed with the peculiar Virtues, which adorn Humanity.

Your Majeſty's good and wiſe Reign hath been ſo Providentially diſtinguiſhed with ſuch a Series of great and glorious Succeſſes Abroad, and with ſo many Bleſſings at Home, that the only remaining Hopes and Wiſhes of your Kingdoms were, to ſee the Completion of this deſirable Event and Union, ſo happily accompliſhed; and your Majeſty, ſo early inſpired with parental Goodneſs, to increaſe and perpetuate the Felicity of the Nation, by the Choice of ſo illuſtrious a Conſort.

An Event, ſo highly intereſting to the general Happineſs of your People, muſt neceſſarily fill our Hearts with the greateſt Joy and moſt ſincere Acknowledgments of Gratitude. The Anxiety, which appeared in every Countenance, while the Queen was detained by contrary Winds, from Landing on the Coaſt of Great Britain; the general Joy, which broke out in the moſt hearty Acclamations, as ſoon as the News of Her Landing was ſpread over the Country; the eager Curioſity, which prevailed univerſally, to enquire concerning the perſonal Accompliſhments, and Character of that Princeſs, on whom your Majeſty's domeſtic Happineſs was hereafter in a great Meaſure to depend; and the unfeigned Satisfaction, ſo generally and ſo warmly expreſſed upon receiving the deſired Information; all ſerve to demonſtrate how much your grateful, your now united, and at laſt happy People, intereſt themſelves in whatever relates to your Majeſty.

The Public Proſperity and Happineſs muſt, no doubt, very much depend on what may be the Event of an Union, which is likely to give Birth to the future Sovereigns of Great Britain. But we can venture to affirm to your Majeſty, that your faithful People, upon this Occaſion, thought little of the Public Intereſt. They forgot themſelves, and were anxious only for the domeſtic Happineſs of their Sovereign. Or if they thought at all, of how much their own Intereſt might be concerned in this important Event, it was only, that they might have a freſh Reaſon for expreſſing their Gratitude and Affection to your Majeſty, when they conſidered, that a Regard to the Tranquillity and Happineſs of themſelves and their Poſterity, was the Motive which had principally directed your Majeſty in forming this Alliance; and that while they were altogether occupied with your Majeſty's Happineſs, your Majeſty was ſollicitous only about theirs.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the ancient Town of Winchelſea, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Thomond and Thomas Orby Hunter, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Your Majeſty's Choice, proceeding from the Dictates of your own Wiſdom and Prudence, has diſplayed a ſhining Example of Piety and Virtue in your Royal Conſort, and cannot but Influence the Minds and Hearts of your People with the deepeſt Gratitude for your paternal Care of them, in the Security of the Proteſtant Religion.

May your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, our moſt gracious Queen, be bleſſed with a numerous Offspring; that a Succeſſion of Princes in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, may never be wanting to tranſmit to lateſt Poſterity the Felicity we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the ancient Corporation of Lymington, rejoice at every Occaſion that offers, to expreſs our Gratitude for the great Regard, and unbounded Love, that your Majeſty hath ever ſhewn to us, and all our Fellow-Subjects, beg Leave, on the late, and important Event of your Royal Nuptials, to tender our moſt humble Congratulations, and to ſignify how agreeable this great Affair is to us; and how much we applaud your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in the prudent Choice you have made of a Proteſtant Princeſs of high Birth, and of the moſt exalted Merit, and perſonal Accompliſhments, to be your Royal Conſort.

From ſuch an Union, what have not your faithful People to hope for? Happy are we in our preſent Enjoyments; but happier ſtill, when we look forward, to behold the pleaſing and comfortable Proſpect of a Continuance to us and to our Poſterity.

May an uninterrupted Series of Bliſs, and Conjugal Felicity, ever ſubſiſt between your Majeſty and our moſt gracious Queen. And may this Royal, and happy Marriage, be productive of a Race of Princes, to perpetuate the Succeſſion of the Britiſh Crown to the lateſt Time, in your moſt Illuſtrious Line, ever to be diſtinguiſhed (as their Royal Anceſtors were) for their eminent Virtues; Protectors and Defenders of the Proteſtant Religion, the Liberties, and Rights, of their Subjects, loved and adored by them, and be the Admiration of the Univerſe, is and ever ſhall be the conſtant Wiſh of us your dutiful and faithful Subjects.

Given at the Town-Hall at Lymington, under the Seal of ſaid Borough, the 7th of November, 1761.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Derby, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's antient and loyal Borough of Derby, to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Union with a Princeſs of the moſt exalted Merit; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we your faithful People, offer up our moſt ardent Prayers to Divine Providence, that this Union may be crowned with the moſt complete Bliſs, that Length of Days, and uninterrupted Bleſſings may diſtinguiſh your Majeſty, and Royal Conſort as Objects of Its peculiar Care: That there may be an happy Increaſe of that Family under whoſe moſt auſpicious Reigns our Religion

gion and Rights have been ſo glorioufly protected; and that the Crown of theſe Realms may be ever adorned with Deſcendants from your Majeſty and Royal Conſort; and that they, in Emulation of your amiable and Royal Example, may prove an equal Bleſſing to their Subjects.

Given under the Common of the ſaid Borough, the nineteenth Day of October, in the firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by T. Ward, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Northampton.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to tender to your Majeſty our moſt humble and zealous Congratulations on your Majeſty's Nuptials; an Event, in every Reſpect auſpicious; promiſing to your Majeſty, from the wiſe Choice which your Majeſty has made, of an illuſtrious and accompliſhed Princeſs, to ſhare the Crown of theſe Realms, every domeſtic Comfort to ſoften the Cares of Government, and every additional Happineſs that can accrue to a great and good King, bleſſed with a peculiar Succeſs to all His Meaſures, and reigning in the Hearts of a free, united, and affectionate Subjects; and promiſing to your People, and their Poſterity, a wiſhed-for Stability to their Rights and Liberties, and to our excellent Conſtitution, under a Succeſſion of Princes of your Majeſty's Royal Houſe.

So ſhall we, your Majeſty's happy People, be the Envy of all Nations around us; ſo ſhall we, and all our Fellow-Subjects, glory with our Sovereign in the Name of Britons.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, and Juſtices of the Peace, of the County of Carmarthen, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Rice, Eſq; Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR moſt dutiful Subjects, the Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, and Juſtices of the Peace, of the County of Carmarthen, at the Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, beg Leave, in the moſt humble Manner, to approach the Royal Preſence, to expreſs the large Share we take in the Satisfaction of our Country, on this great and auſpicious Occaſion.

While your Majeſty has devoted your Youth, and ſacrificed your Pleaſures, to the Labours of Government, we rejoice to find, that in the only Inſtance in which you have provided for your private Happineſs, you have conſulted the moſt material Intereſt of your Subjects.

Your Majeſty, having choſen a Princeſs of ſuch diſtinguiſhed Virtues and Qualities, has eſtabliſhed you ſtill more ſtrongly in the Hearts of your People, we rejoice to behold the Royal Character in all its Fulneſs; and we receive the beſt grounded Hopes, that as either Sex has now the Advantage of the moſt perfect Model in the moſt conſpicuous Situation, that conjugal Fidelity and domeſtick Union, parental Tenderneſs and filial Piety, may again revive and flouriſh amongſt us; that whilſt, in publick Life, by your Majeſty's Magnanimity and Wiſdom, we are made great People in Commerce and War, in Science and in Laws, we ſhall, by the Influence of both your Majeſties more retired Virtues, be made happy within our own Houſes; that rational Endearment ſhall take Place of unſocial Diſſipation, and that every private Family ſhall form itſelf to Virtue and Happineſs, by the Example of a Court.

In the very Opening of your Government, you have been congratulated on as many ſignal Triumphs, as would have given Luſtre to the longeſt Reign: May we now approach your Majeſty with Congratulations of a more unmixed Joy, and in which Humanity has nothing to ſuffer; may this auſpicious Union give Riſe to many ſuch Occaſions, and may the Bleſſings which we now enjoy, be extended, by this happy Event, to the lateſt Poſterity.
